

The Importance of the Interview in Title IX Investigations (3 part series)

Part 1: Separating the Interview from the Investigation (June 9 at 1pm EDT)

Part 2: Maximizing Opportunities for Information (July 21 at 1pm EDT)

Part 3: Understanding the Continuum of an Interview (August 25 at 1pm EDT)

Reserve your seats at www.certifiedfeti.com/webinar-series-interviews-higher-education

Presented by:

CERTIFIEDFETI®

Holland & Knight

ABOUT THE WEBINAR SERIES

The Importance of the Interview in Title IX Investigations

SYNOPSIS

Every investigation begins with gathering information. Being able to conduct an effective, fair and neutral interview is paramount for investigators navigating their professional responsibilities in the ever changing landscape of Title IX compliance.

The interview provides the foundation for your investigation and, too often, professionals overlook the importance of identifying a methodology and process that is consistently applied.

In this 3 part series, Certified FETI founder, Carrie Hull, and Holland & Knight education and employment attorney, Jeffrey J. Nolan will discuss the importance of separating the interview from the investigation, approaches to maximizing opportunities for information collection, understanding the continuum of an interview, and the downstream effects of the interview on conducting Title IX investigations consistent with best and promising practices.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

In this webinar series you will learn:

- ✓ The importance of understanding your role when collecting information
- ✓ How to maintain your role as an interviewer and why separating the interview from the investigation is so important
- ✓ How to Collect the dots, Not Connect the Dots in your role as interviewer
- ✓ Identifying practices that turn your interview into an investigation
- ✓ How separating the interview from the Investigation ensures neutrality in your interviews
- ✓ Downstream effects of separating the interview from your investigation

WHO IS THIS FOR?

The content of this webinar is beneficial for Title IX Administrators, Title IX Investigators, General Counsel, Campus Peace Officers, SANE Nurses, and anyone else who interviews or investigates in a professional capacity in higher education.

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Carrie Hull
FOUNDER

An Oregon native, Carrie Hull began her career as a law enforcement officer after graduating from the Oregon Department of Public Safety, Standards and Training and the Portland Police Bureau advanced academy.

Currently, Carrie Hull is the Executive Director for the You Have Options Program, the Director of Certification for Certified FETI and operates her private consulting firm Carrie Hull Consulting where she primarily focuses on working directly with specialized units within law enforcement agencies around the globe and providing customized interviewing services to corporations, institutions of higher learning and government agencies.

Read Ms. Hull's full bio at: <https://www.certifiedfeti.com/about/about-certified-feti>

Jeffrey Nolan
SENIOR COUNSEL
Holland & Knight

Jeffrey Nolan is an education and employment attorney based in Holland & Knight's Boston office who represents, advises, educates and helps clients nationwide manage conflicts, enhance the safety of individuals and environments, and successfully navigate the maze of legal obligations faced by educational institutions and employers.

Mr. Nolan represents and advises colleges, universities and independent schools throughout the United States regarding situations that implicate Title IX, the Clery Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and other laws that apply in the higher education context.

Read Mr. Nolan's full bio at: <https://www.hklaw.com/en/professionals/n/nolan-jeffrey-james>